Integral
Realizing the Full Potential of Urban Living

ADETAYO (ADE) SANUSI

VICE PRESIDENT, ASSET & INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT

Adetayo Sanusi is Vice President of Asset & Investment Management for Integral and a member of the Executive Committee and Investment Committee. He is responsible for the asset and investment management activities for the development and operating assets in the company's real estate portfolio. In this role, Ade is involved in the strategic direction and value enhancement of the company's stabilized mixed income multifamily portfolio as well as the underwriting, financing, deal structuring, due diligence, and evaluation of Integral development opportunities. Since joining Integral, he has been involved in multiple real estate transactions valued at over $500 million.

Prior to joining Integral in 2014, Mr. Sanusi held multiple roles at Forest City Realty Trust (now, part of Brookfield Properties). These roles included Finance, Strategy, Investment, and development. He holds an MBA degree in Finance and Real Estate from Cleveland State University in Ohio; and a Bachelor of Science in Real Estate & Business Management from Obafemi Awolowo University in Nigeria.

Ade is a member of the Urban Land Institute, serving currently as the Chair of the ULI Atlanta Livable Communities Council (LCC) and an alumni member of the ULI Atlanta Center forLeadership. He actively serves on the board of Truly Living Well Center for Natural Urban Agriculture (TLW), an organization committed to providing good healthy food and well-being to under-served inner communities in Atlanta.
